Summary

We challenge you to find a better built, better maintained, and prettier steel yacht on the market – and this one is fully loaded with all the gear you’re going to need for that voyage of a lifetime. Or simply roam the Australian coastline in total safety. Near-new boat assures maintenance is minimized.

Built by the renowned Horst Stegman, this classic Halvo design has proved its mettle time and again in the various incarnations of the Freya design.

Motivated seller going overseas, will listen to all reasonable offers.

Inspection will definitely not disappoint – nitpickers welcome!
