General Comments	An unbelievably pretty and fastidiously maintained example of these legendary blue-water cruising yachts, the Whitby 42 is vintage Ted Brewer and arguably his most commercially successful design. S.V. Repose is probably the best example of this design available anywhere, and is a one-owner vessel from new. In amazing condition, you simply won't believe she's not 'fresh out of the box'. With two good double cabins, forward and aft, roomy cockpit, classic interior layout, and impeccable cruising credentials, here's a yacht you simply must put at the top of your wish-list.
